Patrick G. Seyferth Founding Member

Patrick Seyferth is an experienced civil trial attorney and one of the founding members of Bush Seyferth PLLC. He specializes in the defense of high exposure product liability cases, commercial litigation and class actions.

Patrick and BSP serve as National Coordinating and Trial Counsel for a major automotive manufacturer and are responsible for all aspects of discovery, fact investigation, expert selection, case preparation and serve as lead counsel in certain product liability matters. Patrick has lectured at numerous conferences and symposia across the country on trial advocacy issues, particularly in the areas of depositions, trial skills and social media.

Patrick has obtained successful results in significant litigation in 23 states. He has tried cases in Arizona, Tennessee, Michigan and New York.

Representative Matters

Product Liability

Patrick has significant trial experience and successes representing major manufacturers in cases involving a variety of product liability, toxic tort and personal injury litigation claims.

- 1st-chaired 2-week jury trial on behalf of an automotive manufacturer involving severe injury to a passenger in a SUV. (TN) : No Cause
- 1st-chaired 2-week jury trial on behalf of an automotive manufacturer involving severe injuries to driver of a pickup truck. (AZ) : No Cause

- Obtained summary judgement on behalf of an automotive manufacturer in complex product liability case involving building fire in federal court. (MI)

Commercial / UCC

- Managed, organized, and defended a major automotive manufacturer in more than a dozen high-profile arbitrations that were executed during a three-month period of time.
- Represented client in an insurance coverage case, which involved not only contractual and statutory insurance issues, but also the impact of an old bankruptcy, res judicata, and collateral attack. Defeated the defendant's motion to dismiss, and the parties reached a favorable settlement.
- Obtained favorable settlement as lead counsel for an automotive OEM in a multi-million dollar breach of contract cost recovery matter.
- Secured a defense verdict in consumer-leasing action following a jury trial in Cuyahoga County, Ohio for a major automotive manufacturer on one claim for fraud and another for a violation of the Consumer Leasing Act.

Class Actions / Appeals

Patrick has extensive class-action experience in areas including consumer protection, environmental, toxic tort, product liability, and construction defect. Patrick provides clients with carefully crafted defense strategies aimed at obtaining early dismissals, denials of class certification, and favorable settlements in lawsuits filed nationwide.

- Defeated class certification, obtained a with-prejudice dismissal of the named plaintiffs' claims, and resulted in an award of over $670,000 in fees and costs. (AZ) : Defeated Class Certification
- Defeated class certification in putative 50-state consumer protection and warranty action involving over 1 million vehicles, with potential damages exceeding $1 billion dollars. The Sixth Circuit upheld the denial of class certification on appeal. (MI) : Defeated Class Certification
- Argued on behalf of an Amicus Curiae brief in the Michigan Supreme Court on behalf of a major automotive manufacturer on the issue of whether privity is required to maintain a claim for breach of implied warranty seeking economic damages under Michigan's Uniform Commercial Code.
